Rakshabandhan Celebrated with Our Solders on 11.08.2022

The festival of Rakshabandhan is a symbol of the unbreakable relationship between brother and sister.

On this day, sisters tie Rakhi on the wrists of their brothers and ask for their promise to protect them throughout their lives. The students of Shamshul Haque Memorial Teacher Training College in Pradhankhanta celebrated this festival by tying Rakhi to the CRPF soldiers. College Girls and Boys students themselves made Rakhi for the soldier brothers. , on 11.08.2022, Rakhi was tied by the girl students of Shamsul Haque Memorial Teacher Training College, Ambona, Dhanbad, to the CRPF Commandant, officers and about 150 soldiers posted in 158 battalion by the trainees of our college. The girl students also asked for a promise of protection from these soldiers. The girl students had brought a plate decorated with traditional style, through which Aarti was performed for the soldiers, they were Tilak and sweets were offered by tying Rakhi on their hands. The students wished for the long life of the soldiers and their bright future. The girl students tied Rakhi to all the officers and soldiers and took blessings by touching their feet.

Report on visit to Shanti Niketan

Shamshul haque memorial teacher training college Ambona, Dhanbad had organised an educational excursion on 23rd Dec 2021 for the session 2021-23 Pupils teachera. The trip included a visit to the Santiniketan Griha, Viswa Bharati University, Shonajhuri Haat and Amar Kutir. The students learnt about the concept of "Beyond the Classroom Teachings" at the schools in Santiniketan where learning among nature is encouraged. A traditional Bengali lunch was arranged in "Shakuntala Restaurant" inside Shonajhuri Haat which was followed by some mesmerizing "maagh mela" trible dnce and music. The trip ended with a lovely view of the sunset at the famous "Kopai River" which is part of the Tagore's fanous poem "Amader Choto Nodi" in Bengali.

54 no. of Students, Faculties and Staffs left from Dhanbad at 7am in the morning through bus and reached at Shantiniketan at 10.30am. Stayed there till 5pm and returned at 9 pm.

NOTICE

"Teaching Learning Material"

Teachers often use various teaching and language tools and techniques to make learning engaging and provide quality education. To make teaching more effective, teachers should take the help of Teaching Learning Material or TLM and this subject is part of Sem - I, hence all the Pupil Teachers of session 2023-2025 are informed that you should prepare a teaching model related to your subject. It is considered necessary to submit the model to the college by 22nd April 2024.

Note Along with this, the activity file is also to be submitted on the same date.
